

Greater Good An

Option 2: Social Technology

- In the second option, name and describe in detail a specific and recent social technology. What are the key moral problems this technology creates? What are proper moral guidelines for dealing with it in your view? Compare your moral approach to what a utilitarian and a contract ethicist would say (each independently of whether differing ethical beliefs globally might be better) with what you say.