

Exam 2 practice questions

1. A nurse is educating a client about cholestyramine. Drag the statements the nurse should include in the education to the box on the right.
 - a. Do not take other drugs at the same time as you take your cholestyramine
 - b. This medication should only be taken on an empty stomach
 - c. Hypercholesteremia is an adverse effect of this drug
 - d. Decrease food high in fat and cholesterol
 - e. Mix this medication in Water
2. A nurse is educating a client about the new prescription for fluticasone. Which instruction should the nurse include?
 - a. Skip the morning dose if you do not have any symptoms
 - b. Use this medication to relieve an acute attack
 - c. Check your blood pressure before each dose
 - d. Rinse your mouth after each use
3. A client with a history of chronic stable angina develops chest pain while walking. The client stops walking and places one nitroglycerin tablet under their tongue. After 5 minutes the chest pain has only improved slightly. What is the most appropriate action to take next?
 - a. Wait 10 minutes and take an additional dose of nitroglycerine
 - b. Drive home
 - c. Take an additional dose of nitroglycerin
 - d. Swallow a second tablet immediately
4. A client is prescribed digoxin secondary to heart failure. Which assessment findings would most likely indicate the onset of digoxin toxicity. SATA
 - a. Yellow vision
 - b. Dizziness
 - c. A dry mouth
 - d. Vomiting
 - e. Tachycardia
5. A nurse is educating a client about their new prescription for atenolol to treat their hypertension. Which statement by the client best indicated understanding of the teaching?
 - a. I'll stop taking this medication when my blood pressure is normal
 - b. I can take atenolol as needed when I feel my blood pressure rising
 - c. Atenolol can cause me to feel anxious and jittery
 - d. Atenolol can cause my heart rate to slow down