Introduction

- In this presentation, I will assess my Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats as a leader in nursing. This SWOT evaluation will help me identify areas where I need improvement, external opportunities for growth, and challenges I may face in my leadership journey.
- Emotional intelligence (EI) plays a crucial role in nursing, influencing communication, decision-making, and patient care. In this presentation, I will explore strategies to enhance EI and its application in various areas for growth.
