

.... Med Surg Questions- student

A nurse is assessing a client with Cushing syndrome. For which finding would you notify the physician immediately? - Purple striae present on the abdomen and thighs - Weight gain of 1 lb since the previous day - Dependent edema rated 1+ in the ankles and calves - Crackles bilaterally in the lower lobes of the lungs	First choice:
	Answer:
Rationale:

The nurse cares for a client with a right sided CVA. Which assessment findings does the nurse associate with this condition? (Select all that apply) - Hemiparesis - Impaired comprehension - Impaired judgment - Impaired speech - Impulsivity	First choice:
	Answer:
Rationale:

An unimmunized individual is diagnosed with acute hepatitis B. What is involved in the plan of care? (Select all that apply)? - Avoid fatigue and ensure adequate rest periods - Administer hepatitis B immunoglobulin. - Eat a well-balanced diet and maintain hydration. - Avoid alcoholic beverages. - Instruct on antiviral therapy schedule.	First choice:
	Answer:
Rationale:
An unimmunized individual is diagnosed with acute hepatitis B. What is involved in the plan of care? (Select all that apply)?	First choice: