

... Pharm Questions

A client is receiving scheduled doses of carbidopa-levodopa. The nurse evaluates the medication as having the intended effect if which finding is noted? 1. Improvement in short term memory 2. Improvement in spontaneous activity 3. Reduction in number of visual hallucinations 4. Reduction of dizziness with standing	First choice: Answer:
Rationale:
A client with stable angina is being discharged home with a prescription for a transdermal nitroglycerin patch. The nurse has reviewed discharge instructions on the medication with the client. Which statement by the client indicates that teaching has been effective? 1. "I can continue to take my prescription of sildenafil." 2. "I should take the patch off when I shower." 3. "I will take off the patch if I develop a headache." 4. "I will rotate the site where I apply the patch."	First choice: Answer:
Rationale:
Which medication is used to treat a client whose cardiac monitor reveals several runs of ventricular tachycardia? 1. Atropine 2. Epinephrine 3. Amiodarone 4. Sodium bicarbonate	First choice: Answer:
Rationale:
Which clinical manifestation exhibited by a client taking levothyroxine for hypothyroidism for 3 months would cause a nurse to suspect that a decrease in dosage is needed? Select all that	