

1. A 50 year old woman present with new complaint of headache. The patient state. This is the worse headache of my life. He r concurrent history of hypertension. Her BP is 200/110 with a HR of 95. Which of the following differential diagnosis which is the most likely etiology.

- A. Migraine
- B. Cluster
- C. Subarachnoid hemorrhage
- D. Meningitis.

2. A patient with alcoholism is brought in with confusion. You ask him to “stop traffic” with his palms and notice that every few seconds his palms suddenly move toward the floor.

What does this indicate?

- A) Stroke
- B) Metabolic problems
- C) Carpal tunnel syndrome
- D) Severe fatigue and weakness

3. Which of the following is a “red flag” regarding patients presenting with headache?

- A) Unilateral headache
- B) Pain over the sinuses
- C) Age over 50
- D) Phonophobia and photophobia

4. You are conducting a mental status exam and note impairment of speech and judgment, but the rest of your exam is intact. Where is the most likely location of the problem?

- A) Cerebellum
- B) Cerebrum
- C) Basal Ganglia