

WEEK 1 QUIZ

1. An 81 y/o presents for a physical recent fall and has trouble walking up the stairs. The only restroom is on the second floor, and she also has a flight of stairs outside her house to reach the street level and is having difficulty. Where does this information belong in the chart?

Functional health problems

2. What is an accountable care organization?

A group of providers and suppliers who come together voluntarily to give coordinated, high quality care to Medicare patients.

3. Most HMOs use a reimbursement mechanism called capitation. What does that mean?

The HMO reimburses the provider a predetermined fee per clinic per month based on the client's age and sex.

4. Denial of provider status is something that seriously impedes a NP ability to practice. If that occurs, some steps one can take is

Writing letters to the organizations president and CEO activating others to lobby on your behalf and reapply after a 6 month period

5. In relation to writing a patient encounter note, the acronym SOAP stands for?

Subjective, objective, assessment, plan

6. The phrase usual and customary refers to

How charges for a service compares with charges made to other persons receiving similar services and supplies

7. Which is an objective finding?

Respiratory rate

8. Which of the following is true about Medicaid?

Medicaid is a program for the indigent financed jointly by the federal and state governments.

9. Which one of the following is true regarding the importance of documentation?

It allows you to communicate your findings to other providers and serves as a record for the visit.

10. Which of the following is the best method for evaluating the efficacy of a new clinical intervention?

A randomized controlled trial

11. Which of the following demonstrates a subjective finding?

Pain level

12. The Affordable Care Act which was passed in 2010 has a number of provisions, including the establishment of health exchanges. The purpose of health insurance exchange is to Create an online marketplace for the sale and purchase of health insurance for consumers

13. What must you do as an APRN before billing visits?

Obtain a provider number and familiarize yourself with the rules and policies of the third-party payer

14. Which of the following statements does not belong in the past medical history portion of your chart note?

Your patient had lab work done at their last appointment. CBC was normal.

15. A screening test identified correctly identified 80 individuals who did not have breast cancer out of 100 individuals that were known to be free of the disease (true negatives). Thus, the test failed to recognize 20 individuals who did not have breast cancer. What is the specificity of the screening test?

80 %

Specificity measures a screening test's ability to recognize individuals who are non-diseased or those with negative reactions (true negatives). It can be represented by a reaction of tested negatives to the total number of known, or