

HIV QUIZ 5

1. What is the new federal benchmark in the United States for successful linkage to care?

Finding a primary care HIV medical provider within 1 year of HIV diagnosis

Starting on antiretroviral therapy within 3 months of a first clinic visit

You chose this option correctly:

Completion of a visit with an HIV medical provider within 1 month (30 days) of HIV diagnosis

Starting on antiretroviral therapy within 6 months of HIV diagnosis

2. For the year 2018, approximately what percentage of persons newly diagnosed with HIV in the United States were linked to care within 1 month after the diagnosis of HIV?

36%

94%

50%

You chose this option correctly:

80%

3. In 2018, which one of the following ethnic groups had the lowest rate of linkage to care within 1 month of HIV diagnosis?

You chose this option correctly:

Black/African American

White

Asian

Hispanic/Latino

4. During 2010 through 2018 in the United States, which one of the following best describes the trend in the percentage of persons linked to medical care after HIV diagnosis?

Fluctuated up and down

Stayed the same