

-
- Describe one health policy related to an identified health risk or disparity.
 - Summarize the intended impact of the policy on the risk or disparity.
 - Examine the policy within the context of a national population health initiative and determine the degree to which the policy is congruent with that national population health goal and/or objective.
 - Propose one strategy to address the health risk or disparity.