

Week 7 Seven Quiz Summary

Here is the Week Seven Quiz Summary,

- Study results indicated a strong relationship between exposure to ACEs in childhood and health risk behaviors and disease in adulthood (Felitti et al., 1998).
- Safety is the most fundamental principle to avoiding retraumatization
- PTSD may occur after exposure to actual or threatened death, serious injury, or sexual violence.
- Adjustment disorders involve the development of emotional or behavioral symptoms within 3 months of the onset of a new stressor (APA, 2022).
- The vast majority of suicides in children and adolescents occur in the family home (95.5%).