

- Question 1

1 out of 1 points

The NP has prescribed a beta blocker for 40 year old black male. The NP knows

Selected

Answer:

The medication must be weaned off slowly

Answers:

Beta-blockers are medications that do not need to be weaned

There is no concern with rebound hypertension.

The medication must be weaned off slowly

The patient can discontinue at any time he decides with no problems

- Question 2

1 out of 1 points

COPD begins earlier in life while asthma symptoms don't usually appear until midlife

Selected

Answer:

False

e

Answers:

True

False

e