

- Question 1

1 out of 1 points

Alopecia of outer one third of eyebrow and myxedema is are symptoms of:

- Selected Answer:  Hypothyroidism
- Answers:  Hypothyroidism
- Hyperthyroidism
- Thyroid CA

- Question 2 Thyrotoxicosis

1 out of 1 points

Insulin doses typically remain the same when a woman with Type 1 Diabetes Mellitus becomes pregnant. True or False?

- Selected Answer:  False
- Answers:  False
- True

- Question 3

1 out of 1 points

What are the primary purpose of periodic examination of patients with known Diabetes Mellitus?

- Selected Answer:  evaluate blood glucose control; to assess for end-organ damage; to assess for associated diseases
- Answers:  evaluate blood glucose control; to assess for end-organ damage; to assess for associated diseases
- reverse end organ damage, prevent renal dysfunction, escalate drug therapy
- wean off diabetic medications to prevent tolerance, reverse end organ damage, evaluate blood glucose control
- reverse end organ damage, escalate drug therapy, meet quality reporting requirements