

Question 1

1 / 1 pts

Inflated self-esteem (grandiosity); decreased need for sleep without fatigue; pressured speech; racing thoughts; distractibility; psychomotor agitation; excessive involvement in pleasure-seeking activities that may have high risk for undesirable consequences (excessive spending, sexual indiscretions) describes a patient with what psychiatric diagnosis?

☒ Bipolar disorder

☐ Schizophrenia

☐ Manic episode

☐ Labile depression

Correct Answer

Question 2

1 / 1 pts

Match the definitions to one of the following answers: Shave biopsy, punch biopsy, curettage, electrocautery.

Used when knowledge of the depth of the lesion is required

shave biopsy

Correct Answer

punch biopsy

Correct!

Uses a scraping instrument to remove soft and superficial skin lesions

curettage

Correct!

Delivery of direct current through a heated metal wire to cause local tissue destruction and hemostasis

electrocautery

Used to remove a lesion when a full-thickness specimen is not required

punch biopsy

Correct Answer

shave biopsy