

EBP:Spinal Immobilization

Spinal Immobilization has remained an integral part of most emergency medical services protocols despite the lack of evidence of efficacy and concern for associated complications was just what we were suppose to do (Velopul 2018).