Edapt Remediation Worksheet Template

If you scored less than 100% for any of the seven edapt concepts, please use this template to remediate your points. There is a box for each PDF Presentation that corresponds to each weekly edapt unit. You can download, fill in the correct remediation area below, and submit the worksheet. You can submit this worksheet at any time during the course. Your professor will grade your remediation summary or summaries based on the edapt Remediation grading rubric. All remediation work needs to be completed and submitted by Saturday 11:59 pm MT on the final day of the class to be eligible for a grade.

Week 1: Writing of a Democracy Constitution	Unit 1: Constitutionalism and Foundations of American
In the box to the right, please write one (1) short paragraph (i.e., 3-5 complete sentences) reflecting and summarizing the Week 1 PDF Presentation content. The box will expand as you write.	The Week 1 presentation gives a simple overview of what the course is about and what we'll be learning. It goes over the main ideas and some important terms to get us started. It also explains what's expected from us, like staying involved and completing assignments. Overall, it helps set a clear starting point for the rest of the class.

Week 2: The Bill of Rights	Unit 2: Federalism and the Bill of Rights Within American Democracy and American Values
In the box to the right, please write one (1) short paragraph (i.e., 3-5 complete sentences) reflecting and summarizing the Week 2 PDF Presentation content. The box will expand as you write.	The Week 2 presentation focuses on the Bill of Rights and how it protects personal freedoms in the United States. It explains the first ten changes to the Constitution and why they were added. The presentation also links these rights to federalism and to the division of power between the national and state governments. Overall, it shows how the Bill of Rights supports American values and protects citizens' rights.

Week 3: Social Movements	Unit 3: Civil Liberties and Nationalizing the Bill of Rights
In the box to the right, please write one (1) short paragraph (i.e., 3-5 complete sentences) reflecting and summarizing the Week 3 PDF Presentation content. The box will expand as you write.	The Week 3 presentation explains how social movements have helped expand civil liberties in the United States. It shows how different groups have fought for equal rights and protections under the law. The presentation also talks about how the Bill of Rights has been applied to the states over time through nationalization. Overall, it highlights the importance of activism in shaping rights and freedoms in

©2024 Chamberlain University